MAHANA

Mahana is a Tahitian word meaning sun. It also stands for the enlightenment of knowledge and the light of spiritual love. The house symbol for Mahana was chosen for several reasons. The cross itself represents spiritual love symbolized by Christ's death upon the cross. The interlocking circles at the point of intersection represent unity within the house and throughout the campus. One circle has a heavier line than the other, giving it the meaning of the sun with the rays extending out from it. The extension of the cross may also be considered rays. The "M" at the base of the cross stands for our name—Mahana. The colors which have been chosen to represent Mahana are pale yellow and gold, for both are colors of the sun.

Vea-Vea-Te Mahana

From lands afar we each one come
Strangers still, so far from home.
But our love, work, and fun
Soon will make our hearts as one.

Each of us has joys and fears,
Times of laughter, times of tears,
But together we will grow
'Neath the Sunbeam's warmth and glow.

Don't stop here, but outward flow
'til the world is all aglow.
Spread the word both far and near
Of the love that's living here.

Chorus:

Oh Ma-ha-na
Vea-vea-te Mahana
House of smiling sun
Vea-vea-te Mahana
Sisterhood we share
Vea-vea-te Mahana
As we learn to care
Vea-vea-te Mahana
